

HYBRID THREATS IN BALTICS AND TAIWAN: COMMONALITIES, RISKS AND LESSONS FOR SMALL DEMOCRACIES

public discussion and book presentation

Date: January 20, 2022

Time: 11:00 am - 12:15 pm/ (GMT+2),

Riga | online

OPENING ADDRESSES:

Andris SPRŪDS, Director at the Latvian Institute of International Affairs and Professor at Riga Stradiņš University

PANEL DISCUSSION:

J. Michael COLE, Senior fellow with the Global Taiwan Institute in Washington, D.C., the Macdonald-Laurier Institute in Ottawa, Canada, and the Taiwan Studies Programme at the University of Nottingham, UK

Ivo JUURVEE, Head of Security and Resilience Programme and Research Fellow at the International Centre For Defence and Security

Vida MACIKENAITE, Assistant Professor at the International University of Japan

Moderator: Una Aleksandra BĒRZIŅA-ČERENKOVA, Political scientist, Head of the Asia program at the Latvian Institute of International Affairs

CONCLUDING REMARKS:

Eric J.Y. HUANG, Representative of the Taipei Mission in the Republic of Latvia

HYBRID THREATS IN BALTICS AND TAIWAN:
COMMONALITIES, RISKS AND
LESSONS FOR SMALL DEMOCRACIES

Follow the discussion online at www.liia.lv | eng.lsm.lv |
baltictimes.com & LIIA facebook account!